MISS LOUISA, which was examined by the club's veterinary surgeon after being kicked behind the barriers, was subsequently declared a late scratching by stewards at 4.50 p.m.. Following the event, all monies invested on MISS LOUISA were ordered to be refunded, with deductions of 3 cents in the dollar on the face value of win bets, 3 cents in the dollar on the face value of place bets, applicable to successful wagers placed prior to the withdrawal time.

Leaving the 400m., DANCE FOR GLORY was held up on the heels of the tiring MR.

CHRISTEN.

When questioned G. Colless was at a loss to explain the disappointing performance of STONECRUSHER, adding that the gelding had led today as it had at its two previous starts however was under pressure prior to the home turn. A veterinary examination of STONECRUSHER failed to reveal any abnormality.

When questioned regarding the seemingly disappointing performance of ORIGIN HERO, N. Jolly stated that after being caught wide early he endeavoured to go forward approaching the 600m. in an attempt to gain cover, however was unable to do so due to horses on his outside and was unable to improve until shortly after straightening.
